Love God - Follow Jesus - Invite All

May Anniversary Event May 21st – following worship

The Board of Worship is excited to host the May 65th anniversary event! American Sign Language interpretation is an important part of Prince of Peace's regular worship – but have you ever wondered how you, too, might welcome someone using sign language? We are blessed to have a sign language teacher leading Prince of Peace's Deaf Ministry. Nathan Zastoupil will teach us all some basic signs that we can use to communicate with each other in our celebration.

This same day, we'll lift up Scott Uddenberg's 20 years of ministry at Prince of Peace. Scott and his family are integral to Prince of Peace's ministry, and this is our opportunity to say 'thank you' and 'God bless you' for all Scott has done and the difference his presence in the congregation makes. Come prepared with a story to share. Think about:

- The first time you met Scott (or his family)
- Something you'll never forget about Scott (or music ministry)
- The difference the music at Prince of Peace has made in your spiritual life
- A funny (or sentimental) story you remember from music ministry
- A funny (or sentimental) moment from worship
- A memory of Scott's family, since they too have been at the church for 20 years

During the coffee hour we'll have some specially themed treats. [Ssshhh... what they are is a secret!] We'll also have the opportunity to share stories and celebrate how our stories connect with Prince of Peace – through sign language, through music, and through our relationships with Scott and each other.

The April 65th Anniversary Celebration - April 23rd

On April 27th 1958, Prince of Peace Lutheran Church was chartered as a congregation. On Sunday, April 23rd we will celebrate this historic anniversary during the 9:45 worship service, with Metropolitan Chicago Synod's Bishop Curry in attendance. Potluck Meal Following Worship. The potluck theme is A Taste of Home. Please bring a cold dish or dessert from your own family tradition to share, to complement a delicious fried chicken dinner.

Pastor's Perspective

by Pastor Erin Clausen (she/her)

*Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth.
Worship the LORD with gladness;
come into God's presence with singing. (Psalm 100:1-2)*

Did you know that the Bible uses the word 'sing' more than 400 times? At least 50 of these references to singing are commands, like in the Psalm above. St. Augustine is attributed to have said "[The person] who sings prays twice." Worship, music, and singing are inextricably tied together from the earliest stories of our faith.

Here at Prince of Peace, music forms a fundamental part of our regular worship practice. This month, the Board of Worship is hosting the monthly 65th anniversary event on May 21st. As part of this event, we'll be celebrating Scott Uddenberg's 20th anniversary with the congregation. Scott began his ministry with Prince of Peace on June 8, 2003. Over the last 20 years, he has built an incredibly strong music ministry in this congregation. More importantly, his ministry has built many relationships and spread the gospel in untold ways both inside and outside of this congregation. Music weaves itself into the fabric of who we are as a community together, and we are grateful for Scott's gifted leadership. I too am grateful for Scott's gifts, history, foresight, and grace as we have learned to work together to craft meaningful worship experiences. Well beyond music selection, Scott's fingerprints are on every part of each worship service. With grace, skill, and creativity, Scott helps us all 'come into God's presence with singing.'

As you plan to attend the 65th anniversary event after worship on May 21st, say "thank you" to Scott for his years of ministry as well. Thank God for Scott and his family, who continue to be core members at Prince of Peace. Take a moment to notice music you enjoy and remember music itself can be worship. Remember to make a joyful noise to the Lord – however that joy may be expressed. Then each week, may we come into God's presence with singing and joy.

Lutheran Social Services of Illinois

On Sunday, May 7th, Prince of Peace will celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday. This is the day we celebrate our shared ministry with Lutheran Social Services of Illinois. 2023 marks 155 years of LSSI's joint ministry with congregations throughout the state! Responding to the Gospel, Lutheran Social Services of Illinois brings healing, justice, and wholeness to people and communities. Serving Illinois since 1867, LSSI is the largest statewide social service provider, serving almost 50,000 people across Illinois last year. Good Shepherd Sunday offers the opportunity to open our hearts and our arms to welcome all into Jesus' abundant life. LSSI serves people through a variety of ministries: affordable housing, foster care services, substance use treatment, mental health services, prisoner and family ministry, and services for adults with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities. During worship on the 7th, the congregation will hear updates about LSSI programs and to learn how their partnership with LSSI has made a difference in the lives of many. Pr. Kelly Nieman Anderson, LSSI's Manager of Church and Community Engagement, will be the guest preacher for the day, and we will again be joined by Terri Gens, Senior Director of Development for a mission moment and chat during coffee hour. Come learn and celebrate God's good work through our shared ministry with LSSI.

Welcome to our Realm!

Prince of Peace has moved to a new record keeping solution called Realm. It offers some exciting opportunities for you to be more involved with our ministry. It helps our staff and ensures our church family can stay connected, keep up with what's going on, and grow as a community.

We will be sending an invitation after April 17th for you to create a realm account. The invitation will be sent to the primary email address we currently have for you. The email will be from: Realm Team notifications@onrealmmail.org and will contain a link for you to click. You can use the emailed link to get to the website or use the application on your phone. You will need to set up a user ID and password.

Once you have created your account the easiest ways to participate will be through your phone/tablet and/or on a personal computer.

1. To use your phone/tablet, you can download an application called Realm Connect:

iPhone link in the Apple Store:

Apple Store:

<https://apps.apple.com/us/app/realm-connect-for-our-church/id1052274581>

Android link on Google play:

Google Play:

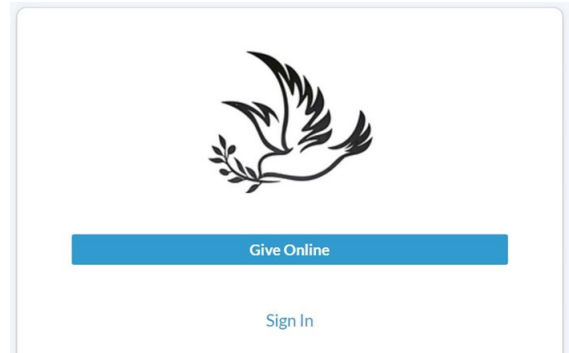

<https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=com.acstechnologies.android.realm.engagement>

2. To use your computer, you will create an account at www.onrealm.org

All these methods will allow you to:

- See upcoming events at Prince of Peace
- Use this information to track your giving and track your pledge progress (eventually set up your online giving)
- See serving and other groups at our church as well as leaders of the groups and other members
- Decide how you want to send and receive messages to members of the group and leaders
- See a directory of church members and the information they have shared with other church members
- ♦ Decide what personal information you and your family want to be visible to other church members.

Note: If you have privacy concerns you can make changes, but all of this information will be visible to the other POP realm users until you change your privacy settings.

We know it is a change and there may be questions. We will have a table in the fellowship hall or narthex each week after church to help everyone create an account and answer any questions. As we learn more about Realm, we hope this additional channel will become an easier way for us to connect and communicate with each other.

Music Notes...

by Scott Uddenberg

Alleluia! Christ is risen!

We proclaim this joyful exclamation on Easter morning but celebrate its truth every Sunday. As we move into the month of May, I looked at my calendar and took a moment. I was in shock and awe as I noted the year - 2023.

It was 20 years ago that I made my commitment to Prince of Peace to serve as Director of Music. When I took that step, I had a family of my wife and three children. I had served at many churches, but my longest stay had been 6 years. I hoped that Prince of Peace could be a church home for me and my family for a good amount of time. I couldn't imagine writing a Tidings article like this 20 years later.

What does one say in reflecting on serving a congregation for this span of time? There are so many memories. I worked with such wonderful, devoted Pastors here, my dear departed friend Don Myrom, my life-long friend Peter Hellstedt, my newest partner in service Erin Clausen. They have helped to create an open, welcoming, unified spirit at Prince of Peace that has defined an environment of love and support for me and my family. The musical partners I have shared on Thursdays and Sundays, Doug Williams, Christine Karnick, Diane Bele, Sam Cortese, Riane McConnell, Stephen Uhl and Collin Crowl who have shared their talents to help me lead this congregation in songs of praise. Dear friends like Judy Hays, who was there at my first interview for this position, and who continues to support my ministry here through the years to this day. Musical partners like George and Kathleen Gentes and Cantor Ilana Axel have shared and planned wonderful special musical programs throughout my time here. All of the wonderful musicians of all ages who have given their time and talents and support at rehearsals through the years. Special saints like Selma and Jean-Marc Bartsch, Reve Rennie, and Lois Krueger. Devoted servants like Lisa Benson, Judy Walther and David Ciaglo who help me get things put together for those special Holy Week services. Leslie and Mike Beck who do more than you know. Those friends like the Schraders and Sedlaks and the Curries who move to new stages of their lives, but never left my heart. All the support given to my family: the Sunday School teachers, confirmation leaders, mission trip members, meal organizers, and every other way that this congregation just lives in community. All these wonderful people who have been here in support of me and my ministry but more importantly in service to God. To Sonia DeLuca who makes sense of all my office rambling and most especially Karen Wagner. Who could God give for a better partner in ministry, for being here from day one?

Emily, Ben, Jennifer, Carrie, Tina, and I thank you all for being our church home these past 20 years. My hope is that I've given a tenth to this congregation what we have received.

Christ is risen indeed, Alleluia!

Not the End of the Road

By Emily Uddenberg
Director of Youth Ministries

I think one of the best ways to teach or lead is to show by example. It has been working for me so far in my youth ministry endeavors this year. But as I wrack my brain to create a special Affirmation of Baptism weekend for our 9th graders, I cannot remember the Bible verse that I picked for my own Affirmation of Baptism. I bet it is right there on the certificate from 2010 (yikes!), something about singing, most likely a psalm because those are my favorite. Some members of our congregation would be able to recite their own Bible verses from memory; those especially who made their living working in the church. Does this make me an inferior director of our youth? Nah.

Before doing this job, I always thought the act of affirming one's baptism made things so final. I can guess that similar thinking is the reason many students don't continue to participate in church activities after their Affirmation of Baptism. Often, you don't see those kids ever again. It's concerning to me because the act of affirming your baptism should actually have the opposite effect on students. Without a parent working in the church, who says what 14-year-old Emily would have done post-Confirmation?

I would love to change this narrative within our congregation. But this is something I cannot do alone. Leading by example, integrating families with younger children into our congregation to make church feel like a safe place, and part of their routine is a fabulous way to start. And in a lot of ways, we already have! Embracing the little ones early on in their Christian education makes the transition into the "adult church" experience that much more natural.

I do not expect any of the confirmation students to have all the answers by May 21, 2023. I hope that there are enough unanswered questions that students wish to come back to church to find the answers they are looking for. Even as someone who is leading the charge in this exploration, I don't have all the answers! I would like to think I have more now than I did on the day of my Affirmation of Baptism. This particular declaration is not the end of the road of growing into one's faith. It is actually the very beginning.

"Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and forever! Amen." 2 Peter 3:18

Stephen Ministry It's Your Day by Janet Ichida

*He proclaimed a holiday throughout the provinces and distributed gifts with royal liberty.
Esther 2:18*

Once again, I sit here on my couch groveling over a topic suitable for this article. I'm still getting over my three-week flu as proven from the variety of dirty tissues strewn around my garbage can, my newest antibiotic next to an overturned antihistamine, and a charming voice replicable of Minnie Mouse. I shared this malady with my husband so we are both confined to our home.

I looked up to see what is special for the month of May, besides hopefully being healthy, and was reminded that Mother's Day is on May 14th this year. (Note to all you husbands – don't forget. Home appliances don't count as presents.) There are so many special days besides those honoring parents. Shame on me for missing National Grandparents Day on March 18, (You did know I was a grandparent, didn't you?) I wanted to be a little more specific so I found these days which should be key to my daughter's family.

Stephanie	National Teacher's Appreciation Day	May 2nd
Chris	National Love Your Lawyer Day	November 3 rd
Teddy	National Baseball Day	April 22 nd
Oliver	National Swimmer Day	July 11 th
My Bob	National Senior Citizen Day	April 21 st
Me	National Weird Person Day	September 29 th

I was surprised to find many days that I don't personally find worth celebrating such as National Divorce Day on January 4, International Unemployment Day on March 6, World Homeless on October 10 with World Hospice and Palliative Care Day two days earlier on October 8. You can find pretty specific days like World Cancer Day on February 4, National Infertility Week beginning on April 23 with Dementia Awareness Week starting off on May 15. I'm surprised that this list could continue ad nauseum.

How would you exactly honor these days? I haven't seen them with Hallmark cards. Are carefully chosen gifts expected? Do you celebrate these days or have permission to stay home and wallow? Maybe you are encouraged to stand on your street corner and delineate more specific symptoms. You might need to gather with a special someone and hold each other in prayer and consternation. If the latter is the best, perhaps that special someone could be a Stephen Minister. You see, Stephen Ministers go through 50 hours of training to learn how to be an active and confidential listener. They can meet with you weekly just to hold your hand and be there. That sounds like a pretty good deal to me.

If any of those holidays touch your heart or you know of others that match your needs, please call up or text one of the following leaders. We're here for you!

Meet the Youth of Prince of Peace

Nora Marie Riverdahl

Nora is a freshman at Barrington High School, where her favorite subject is World History. Nora plays point guard for the school basketball team. She has been playing basketball for a few years now. When Nora has free time, she likes to hang out with her friends, going to the movies or shopping. Although there are several places where Nora buys her clothes, she loves thrifting! Nora met her best friend in the 7th grade. Here's a little known fact - If Nora could be any animal, she would choose to be a sloth.

In addition to her parents, Nora has a brother, Jackson. As a family, they like to go to baseball games, rooting for the Cubs, and they enjoy traveling to a variety of places. An annual family tradition is to watch, "It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown." The family loves their super fluffy Havanese, Sammy. Nora enjoys playing with him when she has time. Nora's favorite family destination so far is Maui. If she could get on a plane tomorrow, she would definitely go somewhere warm. If Nora were on a deserted island, and she could only bring one food, she would bring four cheese pasta with marinara sauce. Nora's Starbucks order is Iced Chai Latte. (All excellent choices).

Nora has been attending Prince of Peace since she was seven years old. She describes the POP youth program as very nice, inclusive, and good for your brain and soul. Nora is an insightful young lady, and her questions and comments are of great interest to others in the Emerge high school youth program. Nora is a delightful young lady.

The Prince of Peace Book Club meets on May 26, 2023 at 10 AM in the CLC. Our book for May is perfect for fans of A Man Called Ove. We'll be discussing The Curious Charms of Arthur Pepper by Phaedra Patrick. This curiously charming debut follows a lovable widower and his life-changing adventure of love and self-discovery.

Sixty-nine-year-old Arthur Pepper lives a simple life. He gets out of bed at precisely 7:30 a.m., just as he did when his wife, Miriam, was alive. He dresses in the same gray slacks and mustard sweater vest, waters his fern, Frederica, and heads out to his garden. But on the one-year anniversary of Miriam's death, something changes.

Featuring an unforgettable cast of characters with big hearts and irresistible flaws, The Curious Charms of Arthur Pepper is a joyous reminder of life's infinite possibilities.
